

Singapore firm ties up with ACT

Hyderabad: Singapore-based video-on-demand firm HOOQ on Thursday announced offering its content free of cost to the customers of Bengaluru-based broadband internet provider ACT Fibernet for a month. According to Salil Kapoor, MD of HOOQ India, the partnership is being piloted first in Hyderabad as it is one of cities which have the highest internet usage. After Hyderabad, HOOQ will offer its service to ACT subscribers in Bengaluru, Chennai and Delhi. — DC
